CLEAN UP DAY

A tentative date of April 23 has been set for the Brighton Clean Up Day. It will start at 9:00am. Melissa Sartain will contact Ruth Ann Wallace, Keep Tipton County Beautiful, and Josh Auger, Boy Scout Troop 260, to see if they can help.

NEW IDEA

We would like to add a “B” in the area between Hwy 51 and Old Hwy 51. We would like to use red, black and white.

OLD BUSINESS

BRIGHTON SOCCER

Registrations are over but if an age group has room they will continue to take signups. There are 14 teams. Opening ceremonies will be April 9, 2016. First game will played on April 2, 2016. Games will be split between Walker Park and Brighton Elementary School.

BRIGHTON BASEBALL

We have a total of 19 teams. There will be no opening ceremonies. First game will be April 11, 2016.

Mr. Cavin wanted to mention that baseball parents will not be allowed to park at the church if there are cones out.

BRIGHTON RUGBY

First ever State of Tennessee middle school rugby game last week.

EASTER EGG HUNT

There was a good attendance at our first Easter Egg Hunt. Central Baptist Church did an amazing job with the food, volunteers, etc. Boy Scout Troop 260 did a great job helping with the parents and children during the hunt. The Town sold glow in the dark items and was able to make $510.00 which helped with the cost of the event. The church cooked 500 hot dogs but ran out before the Easter Egg Hunt started. It will be a repeat event.

REDBIRDS NIGHT

Just a reminder that the Town of Brighton Redbirds Night is April 9, 2016. Tickets can be purchased at Town Hall for $19.00 each. The ticket includes entry to the game, hot dog, soda and hat. Mayor Crocker will be throwing out the first pitch of the game.
